The Construction Law Section of the State Bar of Texas

NOVEMBER 21 & 22, 2024

Westin Galleria Dallas • 13340 Dallas Pkwy. • Dallas, Texas 75240

This course has been approved for 13.50 hours credit (including 1.00 hour of ethics credit) which will apply towards MCLE, the College of the State Bar of Texas, and the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in Construction Law, Civil Trial Law and Real Estate Law. To obtain full MCLE credit, you must attend all sessions, including the luncheons. If you need CLE credit in a state other than Texas, please let us know at registration.

CPAs may obtain 17.10 hours of CPE credit toward licensing with the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy. Sponsor No. 6867

The Texas Institute of CLE is an accredited sponsor with the Texas Department of Insurance. An application has been submitted for 13.0 hours of General credit (all license types.) Approved hours may vary.

The organizers of this conference believe there are approximately 13.50 hours of continuing education credit for architects potentially available over the two-day course. Members of the American Institute of Architects should self-report continuing education to AIA at <http://www.aia.org>. For reporting to the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners, see <http://www.tbae.state.tx.us/Registrants/ContinuingEducation.shtml>.

This course is eligible for MCE credit through the Texas Real Estate Commission.

HERE'S WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND:

The course is intended for Texas lawyers and construction industry members and professionals who are interested in acquiring a basic knowledge of Texas construction law, legal relationships between owners, designers, contractors, and their insurers and sureties, and also serves as an introduction to construction industry contracts.

The two-day course will emphasize the practical aspects of construction law, including discussion of construction contracts, Texas lien laws, and construction disputes and their resolution. Attendees will acquire a basic glossary of construction terms and concepts, understand the relationships between the major players in the construction process, and be able to recognize and avoid common pitfalls in contract drafting and in construction litigation.

The program will be taught by experienced construction lawyers who will emphasize the practical aspects of construction law in a setting that will provide ample opportunity for discussion and follow-up questions. The course materials will include a syllabus of recent articles, publications, and cases, together with a glossary and original program materials.

10:45 a.m.
-11:45 a.m.

Causes of Action in Texas Construction Law – Choosing the right cause of action early on in a case can mean the difference between ultimate success and failure. Learn the most common causes of action and how different ones can help (or hurt) your case.

Lara Albright Yost, Dallas

12:00 p.m.

LUNCHEON: Tickets for registrants may be purchased for $25. Please purchase your tickets in advance. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

Liability and Defenses for Design Professionals – Claimants have crafted creative theories to expand the liability of architects and engineers and to avoid defenses like the economic loss rule and lack of privity. This presentation will outline the most common theories of liability and discuss substantive and procedural developments affecting claims against and defenses for architects and engineers.

Jamie Oberg, Dallas

12:45 p.m.

Break

1:00 p.m.

Contracts Panel – Owner/GC/Sub Perspectives – Owners, general contractors, and subcontractors have their own pressure points and goals in negotiating construction contracts. This panel discussion will cover some of the key issues and provisions that can help all parties allocate risks and prepare for things that may go awry.

Moderator: Julia E. Bobbitt, Houston

Logan R. Adcock, Dallas [Owner]

Kimberly Ann Davison, Dallas [GC]

Christopher A. Brown, Fort Worth [Sub]

2:15 p.m.

Contract Termination – One of the construction lawyer's key roles is to help the client assess the pros and cons of contract termination, usually in high-pressure circumstances. This topic covers the minefield of that process, including compliance with contractual procedures to mitigate exposure to wrongful termination claims.

Ashley C. Cummings, Dallas

3:00 p.m.

Afternoon Break – Sponsored by FTI Consulting, Inc.

3:15 p.m.

What Works and Doesn't Work in Construction Mediation – Mediation is a chance for clients to control their own fates and save huge amounts of time and money that would be spent on discovery and trial. So why don't all cases settle? An attorney who has negotiated settlements at many mediations offers his views on both successful and ineffective mediation strategies.

Jason L. Cagle, Dallas

4:00 p.m.

Arbitration – Arbitration was designed to be a more efficient, less expensive, and more industry-specific alternative to the traditional court system. But is it? A former law clerk of the EDTX discusses the logistics, rules, and practical considerations involved in arbitration and how those differ from the courthouse.

Richard P. Flake, Friendswood

4:45 p.m.

Adjourn to Reception – Sponsored by Interface Consulting International, Inc. & Nelson Forensics, LLC

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 2024

8:00 a.m.

Continental Breakfast

8:30 a.m.

Top Cases Every Construction Lawyer Should Know – This topic will familiarize the audience with the fundamental cases in construction law. These cases are often cited, often utilized, and often debated. In any event you simply must know these cases and how they shape Texas construction law.

Stephanie S. Harrison, Fort Worth

9:30 a.m.

The Successful Preparation and Use of Construction Experts – Through their testimony and written reports, experts are indispensable for educating judges, juries, and arbitrators about complex construction issues. An experienced partner shares practical tips on the proper selection and preparation of experts, including when to recognize that you need one.

D. Blake Wilson, Austin

10:15 a.m.

Morning Break – Sponsored by Bryant Consultants, Inc.

- 10:30 a.m. Insurance Basics for the Construction Lawyer – Every construction lawyer and industry participant should understand the key elements of insurance coverage and claims on construction projects, as well as how to secure and maximize the client’s rights under all available policies. This presentation will help illuminate the field and show how to avoid the loss of available insurance coverage and proceeds.
Amy N. Rauch, Dallas
- 11:30 a.m. Securing and Enforcing Lien & Bond Claims in Texas – Texas has one of the most complicated and dangerous statutory systems in the country for construction liens. Learn how to avoid costly mistakes, find relief in statutorily required payment bonds, and take advantage of alternative payment sources when a good project goes bad.
Misty H. Gutierrez, Dallas
- 12:30 p.m. LUNCHEON: Tickets for registrants may be purchased for $26. Please purchase your tickets in advance. Tickets will not be sold at the door.
Public Procurement in Texas – Public contract law is both similar to and different from the private realm. It is governed by more statutes; it is more consistent in its rules; and it can contain more barriers for the private contractor than he or she is used to. But with the deep pockets involved in the public sector, that is where “the action” often is, so familiarity with its promises and pitfalls is a necessity.
Tiffany N. Leal, Austin
- 1:30 p.m. Afternoon Break – Sponsored by Bert L. Howe & Associates, Inc.
- 1:45 p.m. Residential Construction – A Holistic Approach – Residential construction projects, contracts, and disputes present unique legal issues, in part because of the Residential Construction Liability Act (RCLA). This session will cover key issues for owners, contractors, and subcontractors in residential construction.
Aileen Glaeser, Coppell
- 2:45 p.m. Tips on Avoiding Malpractice – This presentation will discuss common perils encountered by practitioners as well as key strategies and day-to-day law practice management tips to help avoid malpractice claims and grievances.
Ryan D. Dry, Plano
- 3:45 p.m. Adjourn
